

Redditek

Redditek has stood the test of time. This range of highly customisable products have been developed over forty years into one of the most respected workbench and storage brands

The range of workbench products available is extensive. Built in a variety of designs and with a choice of worktop finishes, these workbench products come with a huge array of custom options to create the perfect work environment to aid productivity and organisation.

The storage collection includes the Euro Cabinet System, a versatile range of steel work cabinets that can be combined to form complete working layouts; and the Hazardous Storage Cabinet range in a vast choice of sizes and colours to assist in identifying the cabinets use in the work place.
